

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says: "Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it. "Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 70 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 240 boxes up to this time, and I would not more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

The Weekly Expositor.

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1894.

CONGRESSMAN Wilson and his celebrated bill remind one of the old Maine farmer, who started to market with a pig tied up in a bag. The tail board of his wagon broke loose, and the pig dropped out as the old farmer jogged on. The efforts of that pig to travel and all its antics to overcome its surroundings very much resemble the Wilson bill pig, that months ago made its owner sick, and has produced paresis of his entire party.

Is there something in that "Wilson Bill" that makes its advocates sick? Word comes that "Gorman and Wilson both have gone home sick." No political dose has ever made so many sick over simply the thought of being compelled to swallow it as this one. And yet it is sugar-coated as never a dose was before.

It only costs Uncle Sam a little matter of $100 a day for a boat and about $1,000 a week for feed for the President's fishing party. It is cheap. If he had taken his entire Senate with him the country would have been still further benefitted.

If the census man were taking the statistics of donkeys in the United States he would, in the very nature of the case, make his headquarters in Washington, D. C. The donkeys with a pedigree are mostly gathered there.

MR. CLEVELAND's remark that "a public office is a public trust" should now be amended to read that "public office is a Sugar trust."

We want a live, young, active, progressive Republican for Congress this year. Not some old "chestnut," a relic of bye-gone days.

PROP. WILSON and his bill do not recognize each other when they meet.

The Census Taker.

The census man will be around this month asking questions, and a refusal on your part to answer may result in a fine or enforced residence in the county jail, and if the enumerator should "give you away" he is liable to a like penalty, in both cases the courts having wide latitude in imposing punishment. However, on the first day of June the enumerators will start out, and will want to know how old you are; what color, sex, name, occupation, where born, etc., etc.; and after you have answered all the questions in a humble and submissive manner, he will pause, give you a quick, searching glance, and in solemn sepulchral tones will ask if you are dumb. All this the law requires. It also directs the inquiry as to who are the "heads" of the family. Just here it will be wise, perhaps if you ask permission to "go out," (stating that it is necessary) and if granted hasten to your wife and consult with her on this all-important question. In some families there is a difference of opinion on this point.

The farmers will be asked to tell how much butter they have made, and how many chickens, calves, turkeys, horses, mules, cows, etc., etc.; they have on hand and their value. Manufacturers will be asked a lot of questions in regard to their business and the value of their goods made during the year. The facts thus obtained will be tabulated, printed in book form and distributed.

A Medley.

Old King Cole was a merry old soul and he had four lovely wives,
One night this king got very full and he tried to take their lives;
He tried to beat them with a club, and such sights you'd never see;
For with him they mopped the floor, for a king full cannot beat four queens.

Mary had a little lamb, and its fleas were white as snow,
Everywhere that Mary went the fleas were sure to go;
It followed her to school one day, which was against the rule,
A flea crept down the teacher's back and she had to let out school.

The boy stood on the burning deck, whence all but he had fled;
He stood there lighted by the flames, and he scratched at his own eye;
The captain told him to come off, but the boy, he would not leave;
He said, when this old deck is gone, I've got another up my sleeve.

Once there was a wondrous man, and this man was wondrous wise;
He jumped into a bramble bush, and he scratched at both his eyes;
When he found his eyes were open, then with all his might and main
He married a widow with seven kids, and now his eyes are open again.

LOCALS.

Fred Francis was absent Tuesday. George Matzen called at the high room Monday.

The school observed Decoration Day, the pupils marching to the cemetery in a body.

THE STORM.

Into the school-room cool and spacious
Came the school-boy, young and risky;
Came he in there, cheerful, happy,
And his heart was full of gladness.
"I will now prepare my lessons,
So with ease I can recite them."
Thus the happy school-boy murmured
In the school-room cool and spacious.

For six minutes hard he studied,
Then his mind began to wander
To the stream and to the woodland,
To the marbles in the sunlight.
To the base-ball on the greenfield;
Pierced the master's glare upon him,
But his mind was running over
With the sports he'd left behind him,
And he quite forgot his lessons.
And the black snake in the closet.

Then the school-boy laughed and giggled,
His whole frame it shook with laughter,
As his thoughts roamed to the morrow,
To his games and how he'd play them;
Then the master getting angry
Spoke he thus unto the school-boy—
"Johnny, sit up in your seat, sir!
All your precious time you're wasting;
Soon your school-days will be over,
Still your brain will be as empty
As the wild-goose flying southward."

For a moment Johnny studied,
And his mind was on his lessons;
On the deeds of Grant and Sherman,
On the good things done by Lincoln;
Then again his thoughts did wander
To his games and modes of pleasure;
Laughter then did overcome him,
Again he whistled, laughed and giggled.

Then the master's brow grew darker,
And his eye with anger sparkled,
And his face was much distorted
By the passion in his bosom;
Went he to the door and closet
Where he left his whip of rawhide,
Made of braided strips of cowhide,
Made to punish awfully bad boys.

Then he stood up in the doorway,
In his hand he held the rawhide;
Then he beckoned from the doorway
Beckoned for the boy to follow:
"Follow me!" he cried in anger,
"To the chamber out of horrors,
Where I flog the awfully bad boys,
Leaving stripes like little rainbows."

Johnny followed rather slowly;
In his mind he formed a picture,
Formed a picture of the master
Holding, in his hand, the rawhide;
Johnny went into the chamber,
Where the master waited for him,
Then began the master slowly—
"Johnny, I dislike to punish,
You're aware how much I love you,
How I'd risk my life to save you;
How I use my costly rawhide
And my strength that you may profit.
Now I'll summon up my anger,
So I can a lesson teach you.
Please take off your shoes and rubbers,
Lay your coat down on the side
So I'll make a good impression,
Teach a lesson that is lasting."

Now the master plies the rawhide,
Plies it faster, faster, faster;
Not because he likes to punish,
But because he loves the school-boy,
Johnny cries out in his anguish,
Shouts, "O mother, come and help me!"
But the echoes from the building
And the rawhide only answer—
"I can't help thee! I can't help thee!"

At last the master, tired and panting,
Lays aside his stinging rawhide;
He has taught the boy a lesson,
And has done it 'cause he loves him;
Johnny now puts on his garments,
Leaves the school-room quite determined
Never more its doors to enter;
For the master taught a lesson
He will never more forget;
Johnny now becomes a bad boy,
Says he knows of nothing hotter
Than the master's love and rawhide;
Says that hell and all its horrors
When compared are just delicious.

YOUR FUTURE

IS IN YOUR OWN HAND.

Palmyra assumes to tell what the lines in your hand indicate. It will amuse you, if nothing more. The above diagram almost explains itself. The length of the LINE OF LIFE indicates, roughly, to which you will live. Each BRACELET gives you thirty years. Well-marked LINE OF HEART denotes brain power; clear LINE OF FORTUNE, fame or riches. Both combined mean success in life; but you must keep up with modern ideas to win it. You will find plenty of these in Demorest's Family Magazine, an attractive present that every member of the family is entitled to. It is a dozen magazines in one. A CLEAR LINE OF HEART bespeaks tenderness; a straight LINE OF FATE, peaceful life; the reverse if crooked. A well-defined LINE OF HEALTH spurs you doctors' bills; so will the health lines in Demorest's. No other magazine publishes so many stories to interest the home circle. You will be subject to extremes of high spirits or despondency if you have the GIBBY, OR VENTURE, marked; keep up your spirits by having Demorest's Magazine to read. By subscribing to it for 1894 you will receive a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides the superb premium picture, 12x22 inches, "I'm a Daisy!" which is almost a real baby, and equal to the original oil painting which cost $200; and you will have a magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep you posted on all the topics of the day, and all the facts, and different items of interest, about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and you get with it, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose to send in your subscription at once, only $2.00, and you will really get over $25.00 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 16th Street, New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send for a specimen copy. A large QUAD, RANGLER means honesty; a large THANGLER, generosity; long FIRST DIVISION OF THUMB, strong will; LONG SECOND DIVISION, reasoning faculty; THE MOUNT OF JUPITER betokens ambition; that of SATURN, prudence; the SUN, love of splendor; MARS, courage; MOON, imagination; VENUS, love of pleasure; and MERCURY, intelligence. Take our advice as above and you will be sure to possess the last and most valuable quality.
